

Persistent Efforts of Ritesh Watts resulted in a huge victory. Know How?

Ritesh Watts is a renowned entrepreneur with a mindset to “Outperform every task you start”. He is attributed with the tags of a successful entrepreneur, investor, author, and speaker. Moreover, he has been zealously working hard on his goals since high school. A glimpse of his influencer attitude could be seen during his graduation when he generated more than a million dollars in revenue. He was also the Vice President of an NGO - RABB during his university days. And now, he has empowered more than 8000 people with different backgrounds.

His growth trajectory can be assessed with the fact that he has started one new business every year since 2008. The diligent entrepreneur has always aimed at doing things on his own since he was in high school. Now, he is designated as Commissioner for Oaths and Affidavits in Ontario, Canada. Also, he is a reputed ICCRC member in Canada. Recently, he wrote a book with the title “DOER Mindset” which is quite popular among the youth nowadays.

Absolute focus can overcome any difficulty

As humans, we are all built to face obstacles in our lives. How we deal with situations makes us different. Ritesh Watts has also conquered many hindrances in his life. He believes that we never get anything without any struggle. His secret for defeating difficulties was that he was always mentally focused on his goals and aspirations. According to him, stiff concentration to achieve something will lead you to the path of success and growth. Sadly, he lost his dad this year who was his support system. But after a week, he knew that his loss can't be recovered still he started working with the same spirit.

As we said, he started one new business every year to expand and intensify his brand - Watts, Power that Empowers. The renowned ventures are TripeR, Watts Group, Watts Immigration, etc.

TripeR is a smart travel consultancy to plan every type of domestic and international trip at prime locations. Catering to the diverse needs of traveling, they want people to make the most of their holiday packages.

Watts Immigration is a firm that provides consulting about immigration and assists in the whole application process. It's an ICCRC registered firm and the founder Ritesh Watts is a Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant. The firm provides services for permanent residence in Canada, study permits in Canadian institutions, family sponsorship, and visitor visas for their customers.

“Watts Group was a dream of my father”

His other venture Watts Group, being a hub of in-demand technological and career-related services, reflects his own knowledge of different industries. Moreover, the technological services include chatbot development, website development, CRM software deployment, and Mobile app development. These services aim at increased customer engagement and experiences using automation and artificial intelligence. The career-related services include free online courses of International counselors, IELTS training, educational consultation, and much more. Recently, Watts group has launched the opportunity to work with brand Watts as volunteers as well as executives with their incomparable work culture and support system.

He is a businessman who has always operated with ethics and with his persistent efforts, Watts Group is a huge success, which was a combined dream of him and his dad, Late Sh. Ashok Watts. His dad was a renowned social worker and businessman of Jalalabad, who still lives with his deeds in the hearts of the people of Jalalabad city (hometown). He believes that his father is empowering Watts Group with his divine blessings to empower the world. Watts itself means Power. We wish him good luck for future prospects!